ABOUT THE FHF (French hospital federation)

The FHF was created in 1924 and represents more than 1,000 hospitals and approximately 3,800 medical/care establishments.

Serving as an umbrella organisation for hospitals, the FHF is founded upon shared values: equal access to quality care for all; determination to innovate and achieve excellence in care, support, teaching and research; continuity of care and treatment.

The FHF encompasses hospitals of various sizes, such as local hospitals, general hospitals, university hospitals and establishments specialising in mental health, as well as nursing homes for the elderly and facilities providing care for people with disabilities.

It advocates for the independent operation of hospital and medical/care facilities, as in this way each establishment can adapt appropriately to local requirements.

It works to create a veritable public healthcare service, bringing together professionals from the healthcare and medical/care sectors in each region so as to improve cohesion between care plans and patients' lives.
